Virginia Cavalcade

CONTENTS OF VOLUME 50 • WINTER 2001–AUTUMN 2001

Number One, Winter 2001

JOHN MARSHALL, CHIEF JUSTICE: On Circuit in Richmond and Raleigh
Charles F. Hobson 4

THE ST. CLAIR FAMILY, WYTHE COUNTY, VIRGINIA: Ornamental and Job Printers Since 1844
Mary B. Kegley 16

WITH PAINTBRUSH & SHOVEL: Preserving Virginia's Wildflowers
Nancy Kober and Donna M. E. Ware, Botanical Consultant 26

"I WAS SENT TO THE SERVICE OF THE CONFEDERACY": Samuel Walker: Slave, Freedman, and Pensioner, 1842–1933
Bill Archer 40

Number Two, Spring 2001

"THAT CAVE JUST HAD TO BE THERE": Ike Nicholson and the Discovery of Butler Cave, 1958
Gregg S. Clemmer 52

WAR COMES TO NORFOLK HARBOR, 1861
J. H. Robertson 64

"WHEN DEDICATION WAS FIERCE AND FROM THE HEART": Planning Virginia's Civil War Centennial, 1958–1965
James J. Geary 76

"A PLACE OF CONSIDERABLE TRADE FOR ITS SIZE": Jefferson, A James River Canal Town
Agnes Evans Gish 88

Number Three, Summer 2001 • Fiftieth Anniversary Issue

THE RECORDS OF THE VIRGINIA WAR HISTORY COMMISSION
Roger Christman 100

A SOLDIER OF SONG IN WORLD WAR I: William Howe Ruebush, Virginia National Guard
Dale F. Harter 102

"OUR SHARE IN THE WAR IS NO SMALL ONE": Virginia Women and World War I
Jennifer Davis McDaid 114

"I REALLY NEVER THOUGHT WAR WAS SO CRUEL": The Veterans' Questionnaires of the Virginia War History Commission
J. Jefferson Looney 124

"IF THEY CONSENT TO LEAVE THEM OVER THERE": The European Pilgrimages of World War I Mothers and Widows from Virginia
Mary Sine Clark 134

THE OFFICIAL WAR ATLAS OF THE 1ST DIVISION, AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE
Vince Brooks 142

Number Four, Autumn 2001

TRACKING ELEPHANTS, FINDING NEEDLES: Researching the Dictionary of Virginia Biography
The Editors of the Dictionary of Virginia Biography 148

PATRICK HENRY'S VIRGINIA: Three Homes of an American Patriot
Mark Couvillon 158

"IF THE RITUAL DOESN'T CHANGE, THE TIMES DO": Swearing in Virginia's Governors
Brent Tarter 168

A PLACE BOTH ORDINARY AND MYSTERIOUS: Richmond Paintings by Brett Busang 178